A GREAT LINE OF FREE ATTRACTIONS.

In line with its policy to put on only the greatest attractions that can be secured, the Kentucky State Fair management has closed a contract with Frank P. Spellman of Cleveland, O., for what is believed to be the best line of free attractions ever seen at a Southern Fair. These attractions will be seen in front of the grandstand each day, including Spellman's Performing Bears and ten other free attractions, such as trapeze acts, mid-air performances, etc.

A Japanese troupe of gymnasts and equilibrists, excelling in their line anything ever seen before in Louisville, has been engaged especially for the State Fair, and will be seen exclusively in Kentucky at that time. In addition to the more thrilling of the well-known acts of balancing and gymnastic work, they have devised several features which will be for the first time introduced here.

The thriller of free attractions, however, will be the troupe of trapeze performers, including several men, women and a tiny tot which is hurled by its heels twenty-five feet through the air and is safely caught by one of its elders. Accidents do not occur in this act, but despite their perfection a net is spread for a possible emergency, so that even if an accident should occur, no fatality would result.

The shows already engaged for the "Stretch" are Ferrier's Trained Wild Animal Congress, the Dicky Wild West Show and Cow Boy Indians; the Dark Town Fire Brigade; Heaven and Hell Mechanical Device; Johnstown Flood; Palace of Illusions; Electric Palace, and many others which will be added later. This is enough to insure every visitor that there will be something doing every minute.

EXHIBITS AND CLASSIFICATIONS

At the Kentucky State Fair.

Entries of exhibits in all Livestock Departments, except for horses, mules and jack stock, will close Monday, Sept. 7th, at 6 p. m., and in all other departments prior to Thursday, Sept. 10th. Entries of horses, mules and jacks will positively close at 12 o'clock the day before the exhibition this year, as there will be a printed program of the horse show, giving the name of the owner, the name and color of the horse, and the number of the entry, which must correspond with the arm number on the person riding, driving or exhibiting same. It is absolutely essential that the entry giving this information be filed with the Secretary by noon of the day preceding the exhibition.

Exhibits must be placed by 9 o'clock Monday morning, Sept. 7th, and exhibitors in all departments have been so notified.

There are 1,328 different rings in which liberal prizes are offered, while there is a total of over 300 different lots. The horse classification is subdivided into classes suitable for light harness, five-gaited saddlers, three-gaited saddlers, roadsters, combined harness and five-gaited saddlers, plantation saddlers, runabouts, high stepers, Shetland ponies and fine horses. The mules and jack stock are well taken care of.

In the Beef Cattle Department the classification is complete for Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Durhams, Aberdeen-Angus and Red Polls. In the dairy cattle department Jerseys, Holstein-Friesians, Guernseys and Ayrshires are recognized. The Swine Department includes Berkshires, Poland-Chinas, Durock-Jerseys, Chester Whites, Tamworths, Hampshire and Yorkshires. In the Sheep Department the following breeds are recognized: Shropshires, Cotswolds, Southdowns, American Merinos, Oxford, Hampshire, Dorsets, Rambouillet and Lincoln, also a class for Angora Goats. The Poultry classification covers every known standard variety, and the same is true of the Pigeon Department, the prize money being materially increased over last year's list. The Departments for Vegetables and Melons, Field Seed and Grain and Tobacco contain classes for almost every product grown on the farm. In Horticulture there are hundreds of prizes offered for apples, peaches, pears, grapes, etc. Plants and Flowers, one of the most attractive exhibits at a fair, will be larger and better than ever before. In no department is there a more interesting collection of premiums than in that set aside for woman's work, children's work and table luxuries.

The Perfect Carriage Horse at the State Fair.

In order to develop a perfect carriage horse, the United States Government appointed a Commission to investigate the desired points that should be possessed. In order to stimulate the breeding of this class of animals, the Kentucky State Fair offers a $75 trophy and a $50 cup for the best mare and stallion, according to the government classification. The points desired by the carriage horse are given in detail in the State Fair catalogue.

A State Fair ribbon has the backing of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; it is a trophy of great sentimental and advertising value aside from the cash premium which accompanies it.

For catalogue, entry blanks or other information, write J. W. Newman, Secretary, 320 Paul Jones Building, Louisville, Ky.

THINKING OF MOVING WEST?

If not, then make up your mind and write me for descriptive list of farms in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. All fine, level, productive land that will grow anything under the sun, at prices ranging from $15 to $40 an acre, and come where life is made tolerable by easy, profitable farming. Why sweat and fret life away in the vain effort to eke out a more miserable sustenance from the rock-ribbed, root-laced hillsides as your father and father's father did, when there is so much good land to be had yet awhile for a mere song? Get out of the rut—break away from the time-worn habit that keeps your nose to the grindstone. All it takes is resolution and a little nerve. Write me, and let me help you to a better condition.

I. N. PHIPPS, Chanute, Kansas.

Don't Preach About Home Trade and at the same time send your orders for job printing out of town. Your home printer can do your work just as good, and in nine cases out of ten he can beat the city man's prices, because he pays much less for running expenses. By sending your next printing order to this office you'll be better satisfied all around, and you'll be keeping the money at home.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly, you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both Home of Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in the paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE HERALD.

Howard James, of Bushon, Ill., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Angeline James.

The young folks of the town were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lenix Swango Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. N. Day, Mrs. C. F. Kash, Mrs. Claude Day and Miss Lou Ward spent Sunday at the home of Fielden Cox, on Stillwater.

All of our people who attended the blue grass fair at Lexington last week speak in the most glowing terms of the entertainment.

Emmett Campbell, a graduate of Hazel Green Academy business department, is keeping books for the J. T. Day store at this place.

Mrs. Butler Hughes, of Pomeroyton, came up Sunday afternoon to be with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Nickell, who still continues very low.

FOR RENT—My house and lot in Hazel Green. For particulars see Wm. Clark, Hazel Green, or write to J. W. Craven, 52-4f Frankfort, Ky.

Arof. M. V. Roberts, of Hazel Green Academy faculty, after his vacation in Owsley county, came in Tuesday evening, and is better prepared than ever to enter upon his duties.

People who contemplate traveling over the Lexington and Eastern railway should consult the new time table, which takes effect tomorrow, June 21. See same on first page of this paper.

FOR SALE—Good farm of 75 acres 9 miles south of Mt. Sterling. Good 7-room dwelling house, tenant house, tobacco barn and all necessary outbuildings. Good water. For terms, etc., call on or address, J. H. Wilson, 53 Winn street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Inadvertently we last week failed to mention a cluster of 10 fine, large red tomatoes sent the editor and his better seven-eighths by Mrs. Luja Kash, for which she has our thanks. The cluster was so compact that at a glance all seemed to be grown together, and the group weighed 6½ pounds.

Prof. M. O. Carter and his most estimable wife, who have been away since early last April, part of the time at Indianapolis and a part of the time at Columbus, O., arrived here on Tuesday evening. Meantime Prof. Carter has been fitting himself to superintend the industrial work connected with the academy, and, although he has received promotion, the knowledge he has attained will the better prepare him for his new position. He is very enthusiastic for the work and will exert every energy to make the school bigger and better than ever before.

Prentiss-Swango.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Swango, formerly of this place but now of Montgomery county, will rejoice to hear that their only daughter and idol, Miss Dora, is to be given in marriage to a most estimable young minister of the Methodist church, Rev. Geo. Derwood Prentiss, as the following invitation indicates:

At Home, in the county of Montgomery, Ky., Tuesday, August Twenty-fifth, Nineteen Hundred and Eight, at three o'clock p. m., Mr. and Mrs. William T. Swango will give in marriage their daughter, Dora Olive, to Reverend George Derwood Prentiss.

The bride is one of the most accomplished young ladies in Eastern Kentucky, a culinary queen and the peer of any in parlor and social functions, while groom is a pleasant pulpit speaker and of much promise in his chosen profession. THE HERALD congratulates them edually and wishes for them all the joy allotted mortals.

Gone to a Sanitarium.

J. Taylor Day, who for 10 years prior to a few months since was a melancholy recluse, and who suddenly apparently recovered his wonted equipoise, again developed a mania for buying everything in sight, in which he became a monomaniac, on Monday seemed to realize his distressing condition and the uneasiness he was causing his family and consented to take treatment. At the suggestion of Uncle Jack Rittenhouse, the Cook Sanitarium, at Oxford, Ohio, was chosen as the most suitable place, and accompanied by that gentleman he left Tuesday morning for that place. His friends hope that after a few months treatment he will be himself again, and meantime they sympathize with the family over their anxiety and suspense.

Disbursing Some Money.

Charley Hurt, representing the Richmond Cooperage Co., Wednesday bought of Volney Henry a small boundary of timber land on Greasy, in Morgan county, paying $100 or more for it. He says the company is now running one mill at Doc Murphy's, on Greasy, and employing about 50 men, at the monthly outlay of about $3,000. The mill on Caney, employing the same number of men at the same monthly cost, is now idle for want of water but will start up as soon as a good rain supplies the need. He was buying cross-cut saws and other supplies for the company here yesterday.

Shooting at Helechawa.

A shooting scrape occurred at the home of Alvin Higgins, at Helechawa, Tuesday night or early on Wednesday morning, when Clarence Linden shot Deako Adams, wounding him in the arm. All the parties are colored, including the host, and the trouble came up over one Sal Cole, a colored courtesan. Our informant, Woodsee Little, told us he could not give all the particulars, but that Linden had decamped without hat or coat. It is learned, however, from another source that Adams a few days ago drew a pistol on Linden about the same frail female, which would indicate that the latter was on the defensive.

H. T. Cord, father of our former fellow-townsmen, Prof. Wm. H. Cord, now a resident of Mt. Sterling, fell dead in Dr. Courtney McGuire's office, at Wedonia, one day last week, while being examined for heart trouble. Mr. Cord was about 74 years of age, highly respected in the community where he resided, and well known to a number of our people.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Franklin, Me., says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at all dealers. 25¢.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

U. S. Senator Bristow, Recently Elected, a Native of Wolfe.

CHANUTE, KANS., Aug. 9, 1908. Dear Mr. Cooper: Our friend, Joseph L. Bristow, won the nomination for U. S. Senator by a large majority, receiving some 100 legislative districts out of 165. His overwhelming success was a surprise even to his friends.

My opinion is that there was a small per cent. of his friends who voted for him believing that he would receive the nomination, not because he was not worthy, but because his opponent, our present Senator, Chester I. Long, is a very strong politician, and had the larger per cent. of the leading politicians of Kansas working for him.

The Republican party here have what we call a machine, and it has always named the candidate to make the race, from Justice of the Peace to State Senator or Governor, like the Democratic party of Kentucky. This had always been done here before by a convention until this year. We have a primary law now, and this is the first time the people have had a chance to say who they wanted, and by doing so they have not hesitated to show Mr. Long that they did not altogether approve of the way he voted on some important bills in favor of corporations while in Washington. Very truly, C. B. AMYX.

Mr. Amyx also sends us a copy of the Chanute (Kansas) Sun, in which we find a sketch of Joseph L. Bristow, from which we extract the following:

"He was Fourth Assistant Postmaster General from April 1, 1897, to Jan. 20, 1905; born in Wolfe county, Ky., July 22, 1861; son of William and Savannah Bristow; graduated from Baker University, Kansas, 1886; married in Fleming county, Ky., Nov. 11, 1879, Margaret A. Hendrix; Clerk District court Douglas county, Kansas, 1893 to 1896; owned and edited Salina Daily Republican, 1890 to 1895; bought Ottawa Herald, 1895; private secretary to Governor Morrill, of Kansas, 1895-1897; secretary Republican State committee of Kansas, July, 1894-1898; had charge of investigation of Cuban postal service, 1900. Again bought Salina Daily Republican-Journal, February 1, 1908. Appointed by President Roosevelt Special Panama railroad commissioner, 1905; now editor Salina Daily and Semi-Weekly Journal."

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S POP.

Floyd Day Figures in Big Deal.

A Winchester dispatch, dated August 11, says: Floyd Day, the Kentucky lumber magnate, one of the largest stockholders in the Inter-Southern Life Insurance Co. is in New York City. Mr. Day is the capitalist whom the representatives of the Interior Southern and Louisville speculators depend upon to furnish the money to purchase the majority stock of the Provident Life Assurance Company, now held by the Fourth National Bank of that city.

Mr. Day and Mr. Langham, of Louisville, have been dealing for purchase of the majority of shares in the Provident Life.

It is the purpose after the Provident has passed into the hands of Day and Langham, that active steps be taken to make the company one of the strongest life insurance companies in the country. It will not necessarily be merged with the Inter-Southern. In any case its headquarters and employees will be retained. Besides the $250,000 which will be paid for the majority stock, Day and Langham are to put $850,000 into the Provident so as to put it well on its feet. There is not information here yet whether the deal has been completed or not.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collected and Concisely Chronicle.

Jackson Prewitt, who shot James Henson a year ago in Cumberland county, was last week freed upon payment of $300 and costs.

At Ford, in Clark county, in a quarrel over a sewing machine, Julia Johnson killed Lula Kaywood with a razor. Both are colored.

John Stone, of Georgetown, was jailed in Lexington on four charges of forgery. It is alleged that he issued false checks for sums ranging from $10 to $50 and got the money.

Guy Redman, the little son of James Redman, of Simpson county, accidentally shot himself in the right foot while out hunting, necessitating the amputation of one of his toes.

The statue of former Governor Wm. Goebel was placed on the base of the monument over his grave last week. The monument is now completed and will be unveiled in September.

The Canton Bridge Co., of Canton, O., has filed suit in the Federal court at Frankfort to recover from the Beatyville & Proctor Bridge Co., of Lee county, $16,750, alleged to be due.

Clarence Gray and Louis McCoy, rural youths, were fined $13 each in the Lexington police court last week for making audible remarks concerning women passengers in a street car.

The police department of Lexington has issued a warning against a supposed bunko steerer who has been working small towns in Central Kentucky, representing himself as the advance agent of a Wild West show.

When the fiscal court of Jefferson county holds its next meeting, L. L. Dorsey, a farmer, will ask $800 bounty on sheep. This claim is under the Croan dog law, which provides reimbursement for farmers whose sheep have been killed by dogs.

A woman "bootlegger," that is the charge that is placed against Mrs. Lola Fields, a pretty 22-year-old grass widow of Jackson county, locked up in jail in Frankfort to await trial in the Federal court in September for alleged illegal sale of liquor.

State Inspector Thatcher has completed examining the state asylums and feeble-minded institute. The Lexington asylum needs larger buildings, the Lake-land asylum pure water, the Hopkinsville asylum a heating plant, and the feeble-minded institute more space.

Thousands of bass, newlights, perch and other game fish in South Elkhorn creek, one of the most famous fishing grounds in Kentucky, have been killed by the burned whisky which poured into the stream at the time of the destruction of the Greenbaum distillery's bonded warehouses at Midway recently.

While walking in her dooryard, near Elizabethtown, Mrs. Luke Miller passed under a large tree when a squirrel jumped down onto her head and became entangled in her hair. In its struggles to escape the little animal so clawed Mrs. Miller's scalp that blood-poisoning set in and she has slight chance to recover.

David Rowland Lee, of Danville, a cousin of David R. Francis, late governor of Missouri, and president of the World's Fair Commission, and Henry Poynter Burnett, of Shelbyville, will be recommended by Congressman Harvey Helm, of the Eighth district, for admission into the naval school at Annapolis.

Irvine Smith, the 14-year-old son of James M. Smith, of Fayette county, accidentally shot himself in the head while playing with a revolver in the absence of his parents, and died shortly after.

Percy Smedley, an 8-year-old playmate who was with him at the time, placed him on a bed and ran two miles to a telephone to summon assistance.

William Huber, the 17-year-old son of Judge Huber, of Covington, escaped serious injuries the other day. Young Huber was riding a spirited animal which shied. The animal slipped and fell, Huber falling beneath the horse, his foot being caught in the stirrup. Besides a bad shaking up the young man escaped injuries.

The old mansion of General Jacob Newkirk, in Middletown, Jefferson county, erected in 1790, was destroyed by incendiary fire last week. Some of the most priceless relics and papers of early days in Kentucky and the South were destroyed. It is thought to have been the work of thieves, as the general's sword, the only relic saved, was found nearby, where it had probably been dropped by the miscreants in their haste to escape.

A hat shot full of holes, indicative of a head full of shot, was found on the Lefler farm, about a mile above Dayton, in Campbell county, recently. When the headgear was shown Lefler he pointed to his potato patch where a sackful of potatoes was lying, and stated the hat belonged to the man who dug the potatoes. He was awakened about two o'clock by the barking of his watchdog, and upon investigation saw a man industriously digging his "Murphys" in the potato field. He returned to the house, secured his shotgun and fired at the intruder, who dropped everything and fled over the hills. The chief of police next day found a young man who had applied to a local physician to have a lot of shot extracted from his head. He was arrested.

PAIN'S BIG MIMIC CITY

Pain's Big Pompeian Spectacle Each Night at the State Fair.

No scenic representation could be more realistic than the magnificent view which is spread out before the spectator in Pain's elaborate production "Last Days of Pompeii." The scenic city spreads out over an area of four acres of ground, and so perfect is the work of the painter in the perspective that one seems to be looking upon a real city and a landscape that stretches seemingly away for miles. Real massive buildings twenty to fifty feet high, loom up in the foreground, representing the palaces, temples, etc., of the picturesque ancient city, while huge triumphal arches adorn its streets. Towering above all these is the ever beautiful but treacherous Mt. Vesuvius. A force of over forty skilled scenic mechanics are necessary to place this scenic city in position each day, in spite of every time and labor saving device that can be provided.

Pompeii is to be destroyed again. Not the ancient city that nestled among the Italian hills at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius, but the big scenic city in Pain's vast spectacle of "Last Days of Pompeii," that will be seen at the Kentucky State Fair. This mimic city represents with ideal accuracy the fated city that perished in the First century of the Christian era. The scenery used in this production covers an area of fully four acres of ground, but so deceptive is the perspective that it appears to spread out over many times that space. The view is said to be marvelously correct and historically accurate, being like what the archeologists now suppose the ancient city was at the time it was destroyed. The whole effect under the glare of half a hundred arc lights and calcium is most beautiful. As one sits in the vast amphitheatre and gazes on the scene before him he sees the tall Vesuvius with its head raised against the sky; below are the houses, temples, arches, etc., and to properly represent these latter many real structures twenty to forty feet in height are blended in with the "picture" in the background. The scene opens with a fete day in the ancient city and for upward of an hour the audience is entertained with a vivid production of the sports and feats of the hippodrome, exciting chariot races, sensational aerial and acrobatic feats, pretty ballets, imposing and gorgeously costumed processions, choruses, music, etc. The tragic dramatic episodes of the spectacle are shown in pantomime. The fetes are interrupted by the terrific eruption of Vesuvius and the destruction of the city by the earthquake, which is a scene thrilling beyond description, and brings into action all the skill and ingenuity of Pain's artists. Following these stirring scenes there is presented a beautiful exhibition of fireworks, and those who have seen these pyrotechnics of the famous Pain have never realized the full meaning of the word before.

Railroads will make special rates from nearly all surrounding towns on the date of this exhibition.

The most magnificent display of pyrotechnics ever witnessed in this section of the state is promised in connection with Pain's big spectacle. This display is, in fact, the crowning "feat" ure" of the marvelous exhibition, and as Pain has long enjoyed the reputation of "king of pyrotechnists" in both England and America, it is more than likely we shall behold something unusually fine in pyrotechnic novelties on this occasion. Among the most elaborate "set pieces" shown will be a mammoth revolving fountain of fire; Alladin's Jeweled Palms, and the beautiful Pyramids. These are only a few of the larger special pieces that will be shown. For the edification of the little folks there will be a large number of comic fireworks devices, such as the "Devil-Among-the-Tailors," the huge walking elephant, the flying pigeons, the acrobatic monkey, the flying fish, etc.

TOBACCO.

Tobacco will be a bigger feature than ever at the State Fair this year. The prizes offered are larger and the classes are more numerous. Classes are provided for the following burley types: Red Leaf, Bright Leaf, Cigarette wrapper and Bright Trash. The dark types are black wrapper, long or African leaf, French leaf, Italian leaf, Green River leaf and stemming leaf. Hon. M. C. Rankin offers $75 in special prizes for the best display of 1907 burley crop, for the best display of 1908 dark tobacco and best display of 1908 Green River tobacco. Not more than four samples can be entered out of a single crop, but if the exhibitor has more than one crop raised on his farm he is entitled to four samples out of each crop. A special burley tobacco class is being considered in which the entries of dealers, growers or associations will be accepted.

RAILROAD RATES TO STATE FAIR.

Railroad rate of one fare plus 25 cents for round trip from all points in Kentucky has been secured by the Transportation Committee for the State Fair. It is estimated that a quarter of a million people will take advantage of this rate.

There will be more than 3,000 awards of premiums at the Kentucky State Fair this year, an average of more than 500 awards daily.
